EFC Cadets Circuit Competitions' Rules

v.10 October 2021

Drafted by EFC Sport Director Regional

All FIE Rules are to be respected. However, some deviations from these Rules were adopted for the purpose of respecting some specifics of the EFC Cadets Circuit competitions.

I. Formula of competitions: the principle of flexibility applies as follows:

- a) The organisers can select from 3 possible formulas of competitions:
  - 1. Two rounds with pools followed by direct elimination table with “repechage” from T-32.
  - 2. One round with pools followed by direct elimination table with “repechage” from T-32.
  - 3. FIE JWC formula, i.e. one round with pools followed by direct elimination table without repechage.
- b) For the formula under a) the ranking for the direct elimination table will be created counting results of both rounds together. Also, fencers qualified from second round should be calculated adding results of both rounds.
- c) From the round preceding DE table at least 20% and maximally 25% of participants should be eliminated.
- d) In this context, from the moment of allocation of competitions for the EFC Circuit upon decision by EFC Executive Committee, the organisers have to present no later than 3 months before date of concerned tournament the invitation including type of formula chosen for their competition.

II. Besides the rules cited above, the EFC Comex adopted following complementary rules:

- a) Pools composition must be published the day before start of competitions. In case of no show up on the day of competitions FIE rules for possible arrangement of concerned pools will apply.
Note: the entries are closed at 12:00 pm on the day before competition and organisers should download the most recent xml entries file for publishing pools by 16:00 of the same day.
- b) The first round in pools must run in a maximum of two flights.
In case of pools running in two flights the following rule for the second flight has to be applied: minimum 50% of pools in the second flight must be composed of 7 fencers in order to ensure the possibility of moving fencers from those pools in pools of 6 fencers with some missing fencers.
- c) If the number of participants is exceeding 100, only one individual competition per day can be organised, possibly followed by one team event. An exception can be awarded by the EFC Sport Director upon request of the organiser who will give a guarantee of smooth running of competitions based on presented relevant technical conditions (number of pistes in context of expected number of participants), as well as availability of sufficient number of referees for the given number of pistes.

- d) If the number of participants in one event is exceeding 150 in one day, only FIE JWC formula for competitions can be used.
- e) The organisers must mandatorily send a short report and photos from the tournament within 2 days after competitions to the EFC sport director.
- f) Online live results from competitions are mandatory to be ensured by organizers.
- g) Weapon control should be held focused on security aspects defined by EFC SEMI commission as follows:
- h) The below table summarizes requirements, for full details please refer to the FIE-rules.

- f) Expenses incurred for these activities are shared by the EFC (travel and per diems) and organizer (hotel accommodation, food and local transport).

XVI. Rules for obtaining the EFC "C" referee license:

1. The EFC "C" license will only be awarded to candidates who obtain marks of 4 or 5 (in scale with highest note 5) at least during 5 competitions within maximum of 2 consecutive seasons. Following criteria are used for awarding related note during the evaluation of referees:

- 5 excellent: with no mistake;
- 4 very good: with small mistakes doing a good job;
- 3 fairly good: needs some small improvements;
- 2 Poor: Needs to improve the skills substantially;

- 1 Fail: Should not stand at pistes at the moment. Needs to improve the basic skills for refereeing.
2. Any referee who will receive low points (1 or 2) two time is not allowed to be a Referee for current season.
  3. When referee receives three times excellent (5) evaluation, the referee automatically receives the EFC C license.
  4. For evaluation of referees all EFC CC competitions are available. Thus, candidates can choose competitions suitable for them.
  5. The procedure for evaluations was described in original description of the project:

It consists of mandatory participation of referees at the seminar organized always ca 1 hour before start of concerned competitions. EFC is ensuring its delegate for every competition of EFC CC. That delegate is observing the activities of referees at pistes. The seminar is mainly focused on sharing experiences of the delegate with referees of competition, however, evaluated referees can be also asked about knowledge of some rules during seminar. Principally, the delegate is using the pause after round of pools for meeting with the referees. Apart from this, the delegate can address referees even during competitions if they are free, for explaining his/her opinion about the referee's actions. Finally, delegates draft an evaluation sheet, which is uploaded in the system and the evaluations notes of concerned referees are automatically updated. The President of the EFC Referee Commission is entitled to verify that process.

6. Validity of the EFC C license:
  - a) The EFC C license is valid for 2 consecutive seasons. If a referee has not successfully passed the FIE examination during 2 years or/and has not participated as a referee in the EFC CC Cups for 2 consecutive seasons, a referee must perform a function on CC cup minimum one additional time in a third season in order to maintain his license. This referee is evaluated by referee's delegate in a form of two marks (yes, no).
  - b) After receiving "yes" evaluation he keeps EFC C license only for current and next season.
  - c) If a referee receives "no" than the EFC C license is suspended till the end of current season. Such a referee may try to refresh its EFC C license but only one more time by receiving minimum one time "yes" mark on CC cup from referees' delegate in next season. If the mark "no" is received again, the EFC license is invalid and such referee must apply for the license as a new candidate.
  - d) Licenses are only awarded to referees that are members of Member Federations
7. The EFC delegate is cooperating with DT of EFC competitions and is entitled to propose the pool of referees for a draw, but also to give the advice to retire a referee who is not competent at a given phase of competition. However, he/she can only advice the DT - not to decide about it.

8. The EFC Referees commission will personally inform the candidates about the details of their evaluation to support further improvement of their work as referees and to prepare them to becoming FIE referees. As this information is sensitive no personnel notes will be openly published.

9. According to the decision of FIE, only C licensed referees can apply as candidates for organized FIE exams. Thanks to IT system of the evaluation of referees implemented in the EFC web site the process of awarding EFC C license is automatic respecting the fulfillment of criteria and published by the President of the EFC Referees Commission without delay after verification. National federation's representatives and concerned referees registered in the EFC are having direct access to the evaluations and to awarded C license.

XVII. If necessary, complementary rules can be implemented by the EFC Competition Commission and/or the EFC sport directory after approval of the EFC Executive Committee.
